

Submissions are open!

We're looking for poetry and flash fiction linked with this year's theme

Show us your creativity!

Submissions guidelines:

- Open for submissions until the 30th September at midnight
- Open to residents of Aotearoa New Zealand
- Submissions must be previously unpublished and not submitted elsewhere for publication
- You may submit up to three pieces of:
  - Creative fiction / nonfiction – up to 300 words
  - Poetry – up to 30 lines each
- Calibri (or similar), 12pt font, 1.5 spacing
- Please submit all pieces in one word document and include your name as a header or footer on each page.
- Submit your work using our google form
- All writers will be contacted by the end of November to let you know if your submission has been successful. Please do not submit your work to any other publications or journals until you have heard back from us – thank you for your understanding.
- By submitting your work, you agree that, if your work is accepted, Hagley Writers' Institute will hold first publication rights to your work in print format and e-format. The copyright remains with the writer.